Saturday -

Dear Chris,

I decided I'd better try to write my letter today or I might not get it done tomorrow, I'm always interrupted so much.

I know you're glad that play is over and I'm glad for you. I am sorry you have been sick. do take care of yourself this cold weather.

Donny Boy has just received a nice present. Mr. Creechmore sent him a pig this morning - he is tickled to death. Nothing could have pleased him more. Daddy came in since dinner almost sick. I put him to bed. It seems that those old spells just get closer together. He hasn't felt good all the week.

The fruit trees are blooming and I'm sure everything will be killed.

I have ordered some silk print for you a dress but I haven't succeeded in finding a pattern anywhere that I like-

I heard that Mary E. Harman had a baby.
I guess Mr. H & Willie are proud.

Sonny Boy was proud of the valentine you sent him - He only got two.

Last Tues. Miss Hattie Bowling had her recreation club meet with Bessie - I proceeded to take a quilt out there and put it in and had it ready for the bunch to quilt when they got there.
pretty slick don't you think?

I think I wrote you that they are to build a gym here. Well, since they have started school is about nothing.
Every day they sit them out at 2 o'clock and the rest of the time they do very little. Sonny Boy is now carrying 3 subjects has dropped three because they don't have time to have them - Bernice wrote that she had been to Meridian and got her a pr of

"strawberry patch" shoes and purse to match to go with her suit. She had asked me to make her a blouse but I can't find any material of that shade. She said she met up with Moss Davis who was very friendly - B. said that they were getting up a faculty play at Liberty.

Has Brewer ever sent your picture he promised? I believe he made that tale.

Aunt Ellie isn't going to stay long this time - about two weeks. She is fine and still eats heartily.

Have you heard any more from Goldie? Does she think she'll take a business course too?

Mary Knox hasn't gone back to school yet but is very anxious to get started again - when Mrs Reid got her arm broken Charlie came home and hasn't gone back yet.

I'm thinking about ordering me a few shrubs to go around the porch.
I sold my Aladdin lamp to Dwight
Bryan for $4.00 when he pays me.
I'm going to buy new curtains for
the guest room.

Sammy Boy got his family circle song book from Asher & Little Jim of which he is very proud. He sang every song in it last night.

Miss Lida and I went to see Mrs Clark Wed. She was still in bed but improving. I think she almost developed T.B. and the Drs put her back to bed.
I think she'll be up in a few days.
There was a play at the school house
Friday night. I didn't care to go.

Gooden Goar didn't find work in Cal. and is back. He is trying to find some land to work and a house to live in so I guess Sammy will still occupy the Goar ranch. No news.

Lots of love from mom.
